BOUNDARIES WITH KIDS

You want your kids to grow up into healthy adults. You want to see them take responsibility for their behavior, their values, their lives. But maybe you've discovered that simply telling them to "do the right thing" isn't enough.

From toddler tantrums to teenage temptations, our role as parents is to help them take ownership of their behavior, feelings and attitudes.

CLASSES JUST FOR PARENTS

Based on the book and video Boundaries with Kids, this class will help you prepare your kids to assume responsibility for their lives. Drawing on principles from the Bible, the authors of the book will help us:

- ◆ Recognize the boundary issues underlying child behavior problems.
- ◆ Set boundaries and establish consequences with kids.
- ◆ Get out of the “nagging” trap.
- ◆ Stop controlling your child—and instead help your child develop self-control.
- ◆ Apply the ten laws of boundaries to parenting.
- ◆ Take six practical steps for implementing boundaries with your kids.

Books are lent to participants from the FLC Library.

Cloud/Townsend Team

The authors of the book, Dr. Henry Cloud and Dr. John Townsend, are popular speakers, licensed psychologists, and co-hosts of the nationally broadcast “New Life Live” radio program. They are co-authors of several books, including The Mom Factor, Safe People, Raising Great Kids, and the Gold Medallion Award-Winning Boundaries with Kids.

Class Facilitators:

Bobby Emig and Jane Whalen are our class facilitators. Both are experienced teachers and parents. They were trained by Steve and Colleen Jacobs of Campus Crusade for Christ. The Jacobs were part of a ministry called Dr. Henry Cloud—Answers for Life, which was a partnership between Henry Cloud and Campus Crusade.

FORMAT: 6 sessions Sunday afternoons.

Each week we will be covering chapters from the book. We will cover the material through lecture and/or video, and in small groups for discussion.

Great for teachers as well as parents.
